COUNTY TREASURER CHAMBERLAIN RETURNED SATURDAY FROM EAST

County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain returned from his eastern trip on Saturday last. He was away 30 days. Mr. Chamberlain attended the annual meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic at Columbus, Ohio. From there he went to Green, Ohio where he spent a week as a guest of his sister. Mr. Chamberlain also spent a week at his boyhood home in Minneapolis, Minnesota, where he met a few of the boys he chummed with in bygone days. He visited the Masonic lodge of the place where he was made a Mason 52 years ago. He was given a reception by the members of the lodge but there were none present who saw him admitted 52 years ago, many had passed on to the lodge on high while others had emigrated to other climes.

Mr. Chamberlain enjoyed his stay at the old home, meeting many relatives. On coming home Mr. Chamberlain stopped for a day at Spokane, Washington. He was accompanied on the trip by his sister, Mrs. Emma Smith of Palo Alto. The general treasurer was glad to get home to California and to Redwood City. He saw the evidence of great prosperity in every portion of the country he had traveled.

CLOSE, BUT LOST HIS $20,000 DAMAGE SUIT

That there is many a "slip between the cup and the lip" was fully exemplified in the Kenneth M. Green damage suit against the South San Francisco Railroad and Power company. Mr. Green had nearly $20,000 within his grasp, but at the supreme moment when he was about to reach for it a supreme court decision swept it away from him.

Mr. Green in 1915 lost his arm at the Southern Pacific depot at South San Francisco while trying to board a train. He stumbled over the projecting rails of the South San Francisco Railroad and Power company's and was thrown beneath the outgoing train. A jury in Judge Buck's court awarded Green damages in the sum of $15,000 after a trial of several days, conducted by J. J. Bullock for Green, Attorney Cannon appearing for the company.

The latter at once appealed to the court of appeals. That tribunal confirmed the lower court. The supreme court was then asked to review the case and on Tuesday a decision was rendered reversing the opinion of the lower tribunal on technical grounds. As the judgment carried interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum the amount of damages had increased to over $18,000. It was the general opinion of lawyers and others that the supreme court would not review the case and that Green would get the full amount of damages. The reversal of the case was a great surprise to the legal fraternity. The case may be retried in the superior court of this county.

LIEUTENANT LA DIEU RELIEVED FROM NAVAL SERVICE SATURDAY

Lieutenant Elmer La Dieu, young son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. La Dieu, of this city, was relieved from the naval service last Saturday after spending nearly two years in the service of his country. He was a lieutenant on the Maui, the lieutenant commander being Alexander Ryan, also of this city. Young La Dieu was the assistant engineer on the vessel and helped to carry 32,000 troops to France.

Lieutenant La Dieu made sixteen trips across the ocean having experienced some very narrow escapes from U-boats. He will always remember his experience on the Maui.

Lieutenant La Dieu has been offered a position in the east as a marine engineer and will leave on Monday next to accept the place offered him. He expects to run from New York to Honolulu and San Francisco and the islands.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

C. J. Lindgren, the contractor who is building the Broadway bridge, began work on the Maple street bridge on Thursday. He will rush the work on that bridge so as to complete it before the rainy season sets in.

J. R. Miller, who prepared the plans for the new fire house and who maintains a pretty home at Woodside, has been appointed a member of the State Board of Architecture for the northern district of California. Mr. Miller takes the place of E. A. Matthews. The appointment was made on Wednesday by Governor Stephens and is a distinctive recognition of the ability of Mr. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Fowler and their son, Bobbie will soon return from the east where they went to place Miss Amy Fowler in Vassar College. The young lady is a graduate of Miss Harker's school at Palo Alto and some time ago successfully passed the entrance examination to the University of California. She is an extremely clever girl. The Fowlers maintain a handsome home on Arlington Road, Wellesley Park.

Mrs. J. L. Johnston and her young son is here from Santa Cruz on a visit with relatives.

A pre-Halloween Ghost Dance and Card Party will take place at San Carlos for the benefit of the tennis court fund on October 25. Admission 25 cents. Come and help in a worthy cause.

The Eagles' Hard Time dance will take place this evening in Foresters' hall. You are supposed to wear old clothes—if you have any—and come prepared to have an evening of fun and merriment. This dance is to be something different to any other event taking place in Redwood City for a long time. Lamb's orchestra will furnish catchy music. Admission one dollar. Dancing will continue until 3 a. m.

J. J. Rodgers, an employee of the Frank Tanning Company for the past thirty years and who left for New York on August 16, will not return. He went away intending to return but while in New York was offered a position as ticket seller for the Subway railroad and he accepted the place at an attractive salary. Mr. Rodgers was the secretary of a number of fraternal societies of this city and he has sent them his resignation. He came here from New York over thirty years ago.

MRS. MAUD HANNIGAN GRANTED A DIVORCE

Judge Buck on Thursday granted an interlocutory decree of divorce to Maude Gertrude Hannigan from her husband, Percy T. Hannigan, on the ground of desertion. The Hannigans were married at Berkeley on January 7, 1907 and have three minor children. Mrs. Hannigan in her complaint alleges that she was deserted by her husband at their home in Woodside on September 7, 1917. In his answer Hannigan denies this. The Hannigans are society people of Woodside.

HIGHLANDS TO BE GREATLY IMPROVED THIS YEAR

The residents of Redwood Highlands will be pleased to learn that the streets there are soon to be improved and macadamized. Wood Brothers, the owners of the tract, in about ten days will begin the work intending to spend over $150,000 in making the streets the best in the county.

A competent engineer will superintend and construction work. These improvements have been contemplated for years by the original owners of the tract who sold the property with the understanding that the work would be done. Wood Brothers will carry out their agreements with the property owners to the letter. The Redwood Highlands tract is one of the show places of the peninsula. No where in the state may be found prettier home surroundings with neat and attractive gardens. It is an ideal location for a domicile.

JOHN O'CONNOR PASSED AWAY IN THIS CITY

Following an illness of several years John O'Connor, pioneer resident of Redwood City, passed away at the Redwood City Sanitarium on Wednesday afternoon at the ripe old age of 85 years.

He was a native of Ireland but came to this country at an early age. For over forty years he had resided in this county and for many years was engaged in business in this city.

In the very early eighties he was in the employ of the late John T. Doyle at Menlo Park. At the Doyle home he met his future wife and after their marriage the young couple came to Redwood City to reside and made this place their permanent home.

Mr. O'Connor suffered a paralytic stroke some time ago from which he never recovered. He was a veteran of the Indian wars serving in the regular army as a young man. The funeral took place from the family residence at 11 Diller street yesterday morning. A requiem high mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul at Mount Carmel church. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery, Menlo Park. His wife predeceased him some years ago.

The deceased is survived by an only child, Mrs. Alice Marie Lowe. The following old time friends acted as pallbearers: Judge George H. Buck, Judge James Hannon, George Christ, W. H. Kenne, P. J. Foley and J. J. Callaghan.

CITY TRUSTEES MET MONDAY

At the meeting of the City Board of Trustees Monday evening, there was considerable business transacted which occupied the attention of the City Fathers until midnight.

Bids for the construction of the new fire house on Webster street were opened. There being six bids which ranged from $31,250 to $39,250.50. Each bid was accompanied by an alternate bid for the job eliminating the terra cotta front on the building. The lowest alternate bid was for $28,551. Action on the bids was postponed until the meeting next Monday evening. $25,000 was voted at the special bond election for the construction of the fire house, and the bids were all above this figure.

One bid was received for the improvement of Webster street, between Washington and Main streets, this was for $9,267.55, which was about $1400 over the estimated cost. This bid was also laid over until the next meeting.

City Health Officer Dr. J. E. Chapin, presented a report on the condition of several places which had been complained of and in some cases found conditions very bad. The Chinese laundry on Maple street was in bad condition and he found several sewers emptying into the creek just south of Broadway.

DUCK SEASON NEXT WEEK

On Thursday morning next the sharp, staccato reports of the twelve gauge shotguns coming from the marshes will apprise the early risers that the open season for wild duck and goose shooting has arrived, but from present indications only those who hunt on either fresh or salt water preserves or have the ability and experience to successfully scull the open waters of the bay will meet with any degree of success in this vicinity. Heretofore, for years past, hundreds of sprig could be seen flying overhead during the early morning hours or just between sunset and dark, during the month of September.

This year however is an exception, and for that reason many of the boys will journey elsewhere in an endeavor to secure the limit string of twenty-five birds on the opening day. Guy P. Hull will shoot in the rice fields at Willows, Glenn county and a number of the genial hardware merchant's friends have visions of roast mallard upon his return. George and Louis Genocchio accompanied by Frank Marcus and Wm. Carnduff will pull triggers over the California Salt company's ponds at Alvarado. Their past records preclude the possibility of these four crack shots returning with anything less than the limit. Thomas Stott and Professor Monteth of our grammar school will show the youngsters how to bowl them over at the Foster ponds near town. Charles and Ed. Gould and Billy Williamson will scull the bay. They are all three experts at that kind of hunting and it is needless to say they will bring home the bacon. Seymour Elkeren-kotter and Will Curtis will hunt at Colusa, where thousands of birds are waxing fat for the oven. The Bul-livant boys, Henry, Eddie and Albert accompanied by Claude Fox will be the guests of relatives of the Bul-livant family at Woodland, by whom they have been guaranteed the limit each if they can only hit 'em. Under those conditions it is safe to wager two to one that the rice fields of Yolo county will be minus a large number of web-feet when the day is over. Numerous parties are preparing to go to Los Banos and the exit of many of our most experienced duck hunters to other fields is the best evidence of the fact that this year is an off one for the opening shoot in this neighborhood.

REV. EMILIO BOCCARDO WENT TO TEPEC, MEXICO

Rev Emilio Boccardo, the assistant pastor of Mount Carmel church for the past three months, departed for Tepec, Mexico, where he will be connected with the big cathedral there. While here Father Boccardo made many friends by his zealous work and devotion to his holy calling. He carries with him to the land of revolutions the best wishes of the people of Redwood City. He has been succeeded by Father Laurence Power who was ordained for this diocese on June 15 last, at St. Patrick's Seminary, Thurles, Ireland. Father Power arrived from the old land last Saturday. At college he made a reputation as an orator.

Father Power is a young man of high intellectual attainments and a scholarly gentleman. Father Power was ordained at the age of 24.

Father Power is a nephew of Vicar General P. L. Ryan of this diocese who was recently made a Monsignor by Pope Benedict.

MRS. RAE SCHENONE GRANTED A DIVORCE

Mrs. Rae Schenone has been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband, Rome Schenone on the ground of desertion by Judge Buck on Thursday. Mrs. Schenone was granted the sum of $30 a month for the support of herself and minor child.

NOTED CORRESPONDENT CALLED TO HIS FINAL REST THIS WEEK

The death of Maurice A. Green, for eight years the San Mateo County correspondent for the San Francisco Examiner and recently publicity manager for Neustadter Brothers of the city, was a great shock to the young man's friends on the peninsula. He passed away at the home of his parents in San Francisco after an illness of a week, caused by an attack of mastoid fever. He was widely known throughout the county and was universally liked and admired by all. He was a keen newspaper man, a clever writer and above and beyond all a perfect gentleman. He was popular with the newspaper fraternity of the peninsula. He resigned his position with the paper to enter the service at the outbreak of the war.

He was a native of California, 30 years old, and is survived by his grief-stricken parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Green; his sister, Sadie Evelyn Green, and brother, David Green. The bereaved family is receiving great sympathy in the loss of their son and brother.

WAS IN REDWOOD WEDNESDAY MORNING

Lieutenant Rice, who hopped off with the sixteen flyers in San Francisco Wednesday morning to take part in the Aerial Derby, was at the Redwood City Aviation Field on Tuesday. He flew up from Fresno in an hour and 30 minutes. He is a Fresno man and stopped here to secure a supply of gasoline before making his long trip through the air. The lieutenant had a British fighting plane with a single seat. A companion, who also took part in the Derby came here from Fresno early Wednesday morning making the trip in an hour and ten minutes, the distance being 169 miles. He has a German Fokker plane. On Wednesday sixteen birdmen hopped off for the east from San Francisco to cross the continent. At the same time 69 flyers left New York for San Francisco. They are expected in San Francisco today. If it is foggy in the city all the flyers will make a landing in the local field. The winner of the Derby will be given a handsome purse.

UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES

The Fighting Poet of Italy—

It was late Saturday afternoon and Uncle Ted had been home for some time before Jack and Ruth were seen coming up the street toward the house. They had been to the movies and were talking away forgetting everything around them when their Uncle appeared at the front door and called:

"Here they come. Two little kiddies returning from the wild and woolly movies. I don't suppose you want to hear a new fairy story, now do you?"

"I do," answered Ruth as she ran up the steps.

"You know I'm always asking you to tell us stories, Uncle Ted," was Jack's answer.

"All right then, I'll have to tell you one before dinner tonight. Get your wraps off and we will go into the front room where I've started a nice fire in the fireplace."

When they were all seated, Uncle Ted in a big arm chair, Ruth on one arm of the chair and Jack on the floor, Uncle Ted began:

"Once upon a time, not so very long ago, there was a poet in far off Italy. He sat in his window looking out over the blue waters of the Adriatic Sea and dreamed dreams and wrote very beautiful poetry. Then the Great War came and his country joined with Belgium, England and France to fight Germany just as our country did later on. He didn't dream so much then for he joined the Italian army and helped his country and the allies beat Germany. After the war was over men from all the fighting countries met in Paris to make some peace treaty. It was then that President Wilson started trying to decide matters for every country in the world instead of making peace with Germany for the United States and then coming home to attend to the important work here. He said that every little country should have the right of 'self-determination,' which meant that many little countries which have been included in other big countries should be allowed to start a country of their own. This meant trouble for all. A people called Lithuanians started fighting Russia. Poland started her own country. Another country called Czechoslovakia was started and still another by people called Jugoslavs. These Jugoslavs are made up of Serbians and some people from Austria-Hungary and other mixed races from that part of the world."

"Where was the poet all this time?" asked Ruth impatiently.

"I'm coming back to the poet in a little bit. Now when the peace conference got to the claims of Italy the Italians said they must have a city called Fiume which had been captured from them by Austria years ago. They said the people in this city were Italians and that it should belong to them. But President Wilson and some others wouldn't let them have it and when the treaty was signed Fiume was given to Jugoslavia. This made some of the Italians very angry but most of them got over it. But the poet didn't get over it. He said, 'Fiume is Italian and Italy must have it.' So he called for volunteers and almost over night he had an army and navy of Italians with him. With the poet in the lead they went right over to Fiume, captured it and stayed there. The poet whose name is Gabriel D'Annunzio, was so successful that other leaders have started from Italy to take possession of other places near Fiume on what is called the Dalmatian coast. This whole business may mean a bad war because Italy will not only have the Jugo-Slav troops against her but the allies in addition because she has broken the peace treaty."

"Is the United States going to get into it?" asked Jack.

"The United States has already gotten mixed up in it," answered Uncle Ted, "and some of the big Senators in Washington are angry about it and demand an explanation. We got mixed up in it this way. When it was learned that the Italian forces were going past Fiume and trying to take other towns below, Rear Admiral Andrews, who is commanding the American naval forces in the Adriatic, received orders from Great Britain to land U. S. Marines on this coast at a place called Trau to assist the Jugo-Slavs in driving out the Italians. The Navy Department in Washington gives all orders to the Navy but they knew nothing about it. The situation is more serious now because Italy is back of the poet and any action against him will be action against Italy and might mean war."

"Why didn't England or France land troops instead of ordering ours?" asked Jack.

"Because England at least didn't want to get into trouble with Italy, and it looks like she thought it would be easier to order Americans than to go herself. This sort of thing just shows what would be happening all the time if the world club were going and we belonged to it. England has acted just as though it were going because otherwise she would have no right at all to give orders to our navy. The poet has said that he will fire on any ships that try to interfere with what he is doing and I don't blame him. It is the business of Italy and Jugo-Slavia and we have no business mixing up in it at all. Unless we get out we may find ourselves at war with Italy."

"Are the Senators going to do anything about it?" asked Ruth.

"They dread to think how close our Marines and Navy men came to bringing war on the United States when they were landed to use force in driving the Italians from Trau. They will start an investigation of the matter just as soon as they can."

"I think England and all of them had better learn that we don't belong to any world club and never will," said Jack.

"I hope you are right, Jack," said Uncle Ted, "or we will be getting into trouble like this all the time."

SAN CARLOS ITEMS

A number of San Carlos folks journeyed to San Francisco last Thursday evening to enjoy the recital in the Grand Ball Room at the Fairmont Hotel given by the noted blind soprano, Mme. Christine La Barreque and her brilliant pupil Miss Georgia Zeh of this place. The purpose of the concert was to illustrate in a concrete manner the meaning of reconstruction in the practical sense of the word; that is to say, to prove to the public that one may be educated and trained so that the brain may be used instead of the eyes. Mme. LaBarreque demonstrated very conclusively that one may learn not only to sing correctly, but also to teach position, production and placement with marked accuracy. This latter fact was brought out very distinctively and with marked clearness and delicacy in the numbers rendered by her charming student Miss Zeh who has received instruction from no other teacher. Ray C. B. Brown, the well-known critic on the San Francisco Chronicle staff had this to say relative to both Mme. LaBarreque's accomplishments and that of her pupil: "Madame LaBarreque not only exemplified her own ability, but showed as well her skill in imparting her knowledge by sharing her programme with her pupil, Miss Georgia Zeh, whose fresh lyric voice evidenced correct training." Mme. LaBarreque sang Wekerlin's "Fleurs des Alpes," Guy d'Hardelot's "Mignon," J. Massenet's "Il est Bon," M. Alvarez "La Partida," Eduardo Sanchez de Fuentes "Tu," Clough-Leigher's "My Love He Comes on the Skee," Leo Stern's "Spring Song," L. Millitelli's "Mia Picciarella," Max Stange's "Damon," Mme. LaBarreque and Miss Zeh rendered the following numbers in concert: Nicoli's "L'Addia" and "La Nuit est Belle" by C. Gounod. Mme. LaBarreque is a rare and exceptional character and personality, having mastered the law and at the same time became an accomplished and highly cultivated vocalist and musician, and this regardless of her affliction since childhood. There were many prominent San Francisco people who were patrons and patronesses and who attended upon this brilliant and unique recital given by the blind teacher and her pupil. Among them were Mayor and Mrs. Rolph. Those from San Carlos who had the good fortune to enjoy this wonderful treat through the thoughtful kindness of Miss Zeh were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson and daughter, Miss Marian; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Foote, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Mahany, Miss Gertrude Hind and Miss Zeh's parents, Captain Geo. H. and Mrs. Zeh. Belmont friends of Miss Zeh who attended were Mrs. Lagrange and two sons, Ed. and George; John and Ernest Haquette and mother and Mrs. Dugan. Miss Zeh was the happy recipient of a number of sheaves of beautiful flowers from her friends in San Francisco.

THE SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, October 6, 1919, at 10 o'clock, there being present T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, and Dr. C. V. Thompson, absent Chairman John MacBain and Supervisor Jos. M. Francis.

In the absence of Chairman MacBain, Mrs. Nash, the clerk, called the board to order and announced that it would be in order to appoint a temporary chairman. On motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown, Dr. Thompson was chosen to preside.

The minutes of the meeting of September 15 were read and approved. Mrs. John L. McGinn, chairman of the Community Council for San Mateo county, appeared before the board and explained that the Council had planned to present each of the boys from the county who saw service in the last war with a bronze button. The cost of the buttons would be nominal, Mrs. McGinn stated, and she asked that the board appropriate the necessary money for the purchase of same.

The board, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown, granted the request of Mrs. McGinn and voted to appropriate enough money to purchase 500 buttons, or more, if necessary to insure every boy in the county getting one.

Mrs. McGinn explained that the plan was to present the buttons to the boys on "Welcome Home Day," November 11, at which time a celebration would be held in San Mateo and probably in some other towns of the county. At the request of Mrs. McGinn, Acting Chairman Dr. Thompson appointed Supervisors Brown and Hickey, and W. H. Amphlett of San Mateo, to confer with her in regard to the selection of a suitable design for the buttons.

County Horticultural Commissioner H. L. Woodworth submitted his report for the month of September, showing that he had fumigated 14,000 pounds of horse beans, inspected 6,498 trees, shrubs and plants and had visited 133 ranches in the county in connection with the squirrel eradication work. The commissioner stated in his report that the preliminary work in the enforcement of the fruit standardization law and the apple standardization law had been started.

The board received a communication from United States Senator James D. Phelan, in which he acknowledged receipt of the board's telegram urging the building of a second naval academy on the Pacific coast. Senator Phelan stated that the matter was receiving his earnest attention and that he would have another conference with Secretary Daniels to see what could be done. Mrs. Agnes Spiro of San Mateo addressed a communication to the board complaining about the condition of the street at the corner of Inez avenue and El Camino Real, which she claims is flooded with water every time it rains.

Supervisor Brown informed the board that the corner in question lies within the corporate limits of San Mateo, and on his motion, seconded by Supervisor Hickey, Mrs. Nash, the clerk, was directed to write Mrs. Spiro and suggest that she take the matter up with the city trustees of that place.

A communication from G. A. Raoullet was received, complaining about the condition of Hill street, between Market and Washington streets in the town of Colma. On motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown the communication was referred to the supervisor of the First township.

C. L. Dinmitt of Redwood City presented a map, together with a resolution calling for the acceptance of same, of Fair Oaks Half Acres in the Third township.

Owing to the absence of Supervisor MacBain, in whose district the tract is located, action in the acceptance of the map was laid over until October 20th, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown.

County Engineer George A. Kneese submitted plans and specifications for the construction of a fill and retaining wall near Christen's ranch in the First township and also for a retaining concrete box culvert near the Chinese cemetery at Colma. Both plans and specifications were accepted, on motion of Brown, seconded by Hickey, and Mrs. Nash, the clerk of the board, was directed to advertise for bids for the work.

County Engineer Kneese reported that he had inspected the mouth of Pescadero Creek on the coast side with a view of ascertaining what could be done to keep it from filling up each year and had found that some years ago a tunnel had been constructed to remedy the situation.

The trouble, he said, was that the tunnel had not been built deep enough, which if done now, he was satisfied would solve the problem. The cost of this work, he estimated at $300. Kneese stated that he did not believe the plan suggested by the secretary of the California Angler's Association some time ago that a ledge of rock at the mouth of the creek be blasted, would be feasible, as it would be impossible to remove the entire ledge in this way.

Kneese was directed by Chairman Thompson to prepare plans and specifications for deepening the tunnel as suggested, and have the same ready for the meeting of October 11.

The board adjourned at 11 a. m. to meet again Monday, October 13, at 10 a. m.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

Doings at Peninsula Garden Spot As Told in Breezy Style By Our Reporters

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Crist arrived here from Denver, Colorado, Thursday evening to permanently live. Mrs. Crist was formerly Miss Margaret Reynard and married Mr. Crist during the time the camp was here. The young couple departed for Wyoming shortly after. The young soldier was a member of the military police and while on duty at Cheyenne, met with an accident while on duty, suffering the loss of his right leg. He left here bright and cheerful in 1918 and comes back minus a limb. Recently he was promoted to be a sergeant major. He is still in the service but expect soon to be relieved. The sergeant will be taken care of by a grateful government.

Stanford Park is the scene of building activities. Several buildings are in the course of erection while others contemplated by new owners of property in the tract.

William Treagar, second vice-president of the Grand Parlor, N. S. G. W., made an official visit to Menlo Park on Thursday evening. He made a splendid speech congratulating the parlor on its progress. After the meeting refreshments were served. Lloyd Douglas and R. Benworth of Stanford Park were initiated at this meeting. Mr. Treagar, who is the chief clerk of the state supreme court at Los Angeles is a Stanford man and is known here.

Little Helen Grivin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Grivin Jr., is improving nicely at the Alder Sanitarium in San Francisco. She suffered an attack of appendicitis at her home in Atherton last Saturday and was at once removed to the sanitarium where an operation was performed. The little girl will recover and this will be glad news to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Grivin.

The beautiful Logan home has been leased for a year to a wealthy San Francisco man who will move into the dwelling at once.

George Nickel, who was shot by an employe at his cattle ranch at Merced a few weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to leave Adler's sanitarium and will be here shortly to spend some time at his parent's home here.

Earl MacBain, formerly of Burlingame and at one time the assistant Wells Fargo agent here, was united in marriage to Miss Adeline C. Kline of Fresno last week. The young couple will make their home in that city. Mr. MacBain has a responsible position with the Raisin Association of that place.

J. W. Lowe of Redwood City, the veteran well borer, is drifting at artesian well for R. E. Miller, president of the Owl Drug company, at his place at Atherton.

Rev. Leo T. Coghlan has been added to the faculty of St. Patrick's seminary. He succeeds the late Father L. F. Mell. Father Coghlan was ordained at the seminary last June. He is a talented and clever young man. For the present he will have charge of the Catholic church at Palo Alto, taking the place of the pastor, Father Joseph M. Gleason, vicar general of military chaplains of the Western Division, who is attending the annual meeting of the Spanish American veterans.

Miss Nance Nunn of Menlo Park has been appointed by County Clerk Elizabeth M. Nash to the temporary vacancy in the office caused by the absence of Miss Katherine Burke of San Mateo, who is taking a much-needed rest. Miss Burke may be away from the office several months and owing to the large amount of business handled in the office, it was found necessary to fill the place until her return.

The Stanford theatre, formerly the Marquee, of Palo Alto, has been taken over by E. J. Arkush of Redwood City and after being thoroughly overhauled and repaired, reopened on Thursday evening. The exterior was repainted and decorated and inside two lodges of ten seats each having been installed and a windbreak has been erected in the rear. In the day time the wind break will also serve as a light break so that matinee performances will have the same steady darkness that the night shows enjoy. New carpets and draperies also are being placed. The theatre is one of the finest on the peninsula. It will be the playhouse for the people of Menlo Park.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Mason have closed their pretty cottage at Sanbright for the summer. Mrs. Mason who spends her summers there has returned to Menlo Park.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Eyre have opened their Pacific avenue house in San Francisco for the winter. They have closed their home here.

Mrs. Henry Midgley was the motif of a reception tendered her on Monday by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Albert Midgley, at her home on Mills avenue. The event was to celebrate Mrs. Midgley's birthday. About forty guests were present, a few coming from out of town. Mrs. Midgley was the recipient of numerous gifts as well as many well-wishes from those present.

George H. Roos and family have closed their summer residence and have taken apartments in San Francisco for the winter.

The University Realty company of San Francisco has taken over the Coleman tract from George Irving who has retired. The University Realty company is a hustling concern and will shortly dispose of the new retaining parcels of land in the tract.
